

Sheet1

U.S. History, to Civil War	Beginnings Strand	Content Standard	From Sea to Shining Sea * alignment (numbers refer to chapters)
Culture		1.01	The text describes various cultures and thus can serve as a springboard for understanding their diversity.
		1.02	The text describes various cultures and thus can serve as a springboard for a discussion on these topics.
		1.03	The text gives examples of the elements of this standard.
		1.04	The text does not specifically focus on the history of individual states.
Economics		2.01	The text gives historical examples to aid in the fulfillment of this standard.
		2.02	The text gives historical examples to aid in the fulfillment of this standard.
		2.03	These are standards for economics. Our history text is not aligned with it.
		2.04	The text does not specifically focus on the history of individual states.
Geography		3.01-3.04	This is not a geography text, though it provides opportunities for students to exercise their geographical skills.
Governance and Civics		4.01	The text provides examples of governments and their formation to help in the fulfillment of this standard.
		4.02	9, but the text does not address the Tennessee constitution
		4.03-4.04	The text provides examples to help fulfill this standard.
History		Era 1	1, 2, 3, 4, 5
		Era 2	6, 7
		Era 3	8, 9, 10
		Era 4	10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15

From Sea to Shining Sea* was written with fifth to eighth grade students in mind. It may be challenging for fourth-grade students. The text's story-based presentation, however, can draw younger students into the text and ease some of their difficulties in comprehension.