

Sheet1

Strand	Content Standard	Light to the Nations I alignment (numbers refer to chapters)
Culture	1.01	With supplements we provide, the text mostly fulfills this standard.
	1.02	With supplements we provide, the text mostly fulfills this standard, both directly and indirectly (by providing historical examples).
	1.03	Not aligned
	1.04	Not aligned
Economics	2.01-2.03	This is not an economics text.
Geography	3.01	Though this is not a geography text, it provides practice in geographical concepts.
	3.02	Though this is not a geography text, it provides practice in geographical concepts.
	3.03	The text gives historical information and practice in geographical concepts to aid in the fulfillment of this standard.
	3.04-3.09	Not aligned, since this is not a geography text
Government and Civics	4.01	Partially aligned.
	4.02	Not aligned
History	5.01-5.02	These standards seem to be more sociology or anthropology standards than history standards. The text provides examples of the phenomenon through history but does not discuss them in terms of sociology or anthropology.